

NZ ITP CONFERENCE 2011: VOCATIONAL EDUCATION FOR PRODUCTIVITY AND ECONOMIC GROWTH.

TRIBAL

PROGRAMME. DAY 1 THURSDAY 27 OCTOBER 2011

THE GREAT HALL, CHATEAU ON THE PARK, CHRISTCHURCH

TIME	SESSION	PRESENTER
0915	Mihi Whakatau	Ngai Tahu
0930	Opening Address	Colin James , Conference Facilitator
0945	Keynote Address: A brave new world rediscovered	Wira Gardiner , Chair, TEC
1015	Keynote Address: Workforce development for the Christchurch residential repair programme	David Peterson , GM, Earthquake Recovery Project, Fletcher Construction
1045	Morning Tea
1110	Government Address Government's priorities for tertiary education	Jo Goodhew , National MP, Rangitata and Education & Science Select Committee
1135	Labour market and industry perspectives and implications for vocational education Labour market outlook	Jeremy Corban , Deputy Chief Executive, Policy and Research Group
1200	Turning turnip into tiger: unleashing New Zealand's economic potential	Andrew Cleland , Chief Executive, IPENZ
1230	Lunch
1330	Labour market and industry perspectives and implications for vocational education (continued) 'You cannot crawl to a quantum leap'	Garry Diack , Group General Manager of Organisational Development and Performance, Solid Energy
1400	Basking in the rising sun: unlocking our primary potential	William Rolleston , Provincial President, South Canterbury Federated Farmers and National Vice President, Federated Farmers
1430	Panel Discussion
1515	Afternoon Tea
1545	Opposition Perspective A quality tertiary sector – the key to innovation and growth	David Shearer , Labour MP, Mt Albert and Education and Science Select Committee
1615	Community/Regional Perspective Integration between a tertiary institution and its community – Invercargill and S.I.T a case study	Tim Shadbolt , Mayor of Invercargill
1645	Close of Day 1 and looking out to Day 2	Colin James , Conference Facilitator
1915	Conference Dinner Chateau on the Park

NZ ITP CONFERENCE 2011: VOCATIONAL EDUCATION FOR PRODUCTIVITY AND ECONOMIC GROWTH.

TRIBAL

PROGRAMME. DAY 2 FRIDAY 28 OCTOBER 2011

THE GREAT HALL, CHATEAU ON THE PARK, CHRISTCHURCH

TIME	SESSION	PRESENTER
0830	Summary of Day 1, Introduction to Day 2	Colin James , Conference Facilitator
0845	Keynote Address: The path back to prosperity	Cameron Bagrie , Chief Economist, ANZ
Concurrent Sessions
0915	Plenary Room – Sector Collaboration	Great Hall 3 – Teaching Excellence
	Putting students first: reflections on the strategic partnership between Whitireia and Weltec Don Campbell, Chief Executive, Whitireia Dennis Sharman, Ministerial appointee, Whitireia and Weltec Councils EIT – Merger with Tairāwhiti: The journey to date and lessons being learnt Chris Collins, Chief Executive, Eastern Institute of Technology Industry practitioners’ perceptions of embedded CCNA: A comparative study Scott Morton, Lecturer in Information Technology, SIT	Ako Aotearoa: Reflections and Futures  Emeritus Professor Tom Prebble, Co-interim Director Strategy, Ako Aotearoa Nicholas Huntington, Senior Project/Research Analyst, Ako Aotearoa with Selena Chan, CPIT Janinka Greenwood, Canterbury University Lynne-Harata Te Aika, Canterbury University Willem Fourie, MIT
1045	Morning Tea
1115	Plenary Room – Industry Collaboration	Great Hall 3 – Enhancing Student Outcomes
	A partnership with the oil and gas industry. An example of industry collaboration Richard Handley, Chief Executive, WITT Virginia Hulbert, Head of Faculty, WITT Fumbling the future?: The Christchurch earthquakes and ITPs Carl Davidson, Chair, Canterbury Employment and Skills Board Encouraging and supporting innovation Murray Bain, Director of Business Development, CPIT Cloud Computing – An ITP’s new best friend Lyndal Stewart, CEO, Business Mechanix 	Project Transform: educational and institutional renewal at UCOL Clare Crawley, Deputy Chief Executive Strategy, UCOL Bonnie Dewart, Deputy Chief Executive Academic, UCOL The learner journey in practice Carole Crawford, Learner Journey Manager, NMIT Faridah Tup, NMIT EPI’s – a target to aspire to or just another funding game Caroline Seelig, Chief Executive, Open Polytechnic Alison Harrison, Executive Director Strategy, Open Polytechnic Neil Carroll, Executive Director Academic Services, Open Polytechnic
1230	Lunch
1330	Alignment with government agency perspectives Panel Discussion: Challenges facing the vocational education sector over the next 3-5 years, and your expectations for how the sector might respond to these	Rob McIntosh, Deputy Secretary for Tertiary, International and System Performance, NZ Ministry of Education Belinda Clark, Chief Executive, TEC Karen Poutasi, Chief Executive, NZQA
1445	Afternoon Tea
1500	Panel Discussion: Future directions, challenges and priorities for the polytechnic sector	Polytechnic sector leaders
1540	Conference closing remarks	Colin James , Conference Facilitator

